

Join Jason Dellinger and other St. Louis business leaders for Integrity Resource Center's Fall Luncheon

Jason Dellinger

After playing Division 1 baseball at Liberty University, Jason Dellinger served on staff at McGregor Baptist Church in Fort Myers, Florida for 4 years. He then took his talents to the marketplace in 2004, and, in just a few short years the same timing, skill, and determination he had as an athlete landed him among the top insurance agents in his national company by 2006.

And that's when his life took an interesting turn. Jason was told by his executives to remove from his voicemail the words, "Jesus loves you" or lose his job. He refused to bow and it cost him everything he had. His story will challenge and motivate you to serve Jesus whatever the cost—and to never separate your faith from the workplace.

A gifted motivational speaker and bold witness for Christ, Jason Dellinger will show you don't have to just survive in today's faith-hostile environment but you can thrive! "The wicked man flees when no one pursues but the righteous are bold as a lion." (Proverbs 28:1).

Jason lives in Charlotte, North Carolina and is happily married to his wife, Kathleen, and is a father to six children! They are passionate about the unborn and are strong pro-life advocates.
