

UNCONVENTIONAL BUSINESS

Transforming The Workplace With Biblical Insight

Presented By:

Join us for dinner with Duck Dynasty's Alan Robertson!

Alan Robertson

Integrity Resource Center is hosting an "Unconventional Business" event featuring dinner with Alan Robertson of the hit T.V. Show "Duck Dynasty". Robertson will share 25 years of practical insight on how to use time tested and proven principles, found only in the Bible, to successfully lead an Unconventional Business in a conventional business world.

Alan is the oldest son of The Duck Commander, and the only one without a beard. He grew up hunting and fishing and helped build the foundation of the family business in the '70s and '80s. Alan plays a vital role in the family's commitment to spreading the gospel of Christ through their love of hunting and the great outdoors. Alan and his wife, Lisa, are parents of two grown daughters who are married to bearded men. Alan and Lisa are proud grandparents to two granddaughters and a grandson on the way. They all live in West Monroe, Louisiana.

Thursday, February 2nd, 2017

6:30-8:30 p.m.

Single ticket: $65 | Table: $600

Overland Park Convention Center

6100 College Boulevard / Overland Park, KS 66211

RESERVE YOUR SEATS TODAY!

integrityresource.org or call 913.782.9333

A special opportunity for those who are willing to become Unconventional Business partners, and sponsor four quarterly events in 2017, is a VIP pass for two to ten people to personally meet and greet Alan Robertson and his wife Lisa from 5:30-6:30 p.m. Visit www.integrityresource.org/sponsor-an-event to learn more and sign up today!

