Marquita Miller

Owner, Five Star Tax and Business Solutions

Marquita Miller owns and operates Five Star Tax and Business Solutions from her headquarters in Kansas City, MO—offering full service accounting & business consultation. Kansas City Business Magazine named Miller as one of Kansas City’s Top Rising Stars (2010), Most Influential Women (2011), and Top Women Who Mean Business in 2014.

In addition to her entrepreneurial duties, Marquita is a prominent guest speaker and regular segment host on CBS & FOX morning shows. She is also a contributing writer for Black Enterprise Magazine and President for the National Speakers Association’s KC Chapter.

You won’t want to miss Marquita’s Unconventional Business story of her move from Fortune 500 corporate accountant to small business owner. She will share how the trials and tribulations of beginning a small business moved her to become what she calls a “Faithpreneur, a person who follows the path to entrepreneurship by first following the path of God.” Today, Marquita continues to be faithforward in the marketplace and is the co-author of Faithpreneur: God is not an agent for your failure but for your success and author of four additional titles.
