

Political Persuasion

Discussion Questions

1. What stood out the most to you in this video?

2. As a business leader, have you ever been involved with any aspect of the political process? What was your experience like? Colossians 3:17 says, “And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” How should business leaders navigate political involvement while maintaining integrity and biblical standards?

3. How can politics impact business leaders' decision-making process, and how can they stay aligned with their core values and model biblical principles in these changing times 2 Timothy 1:7 says, “For God did not give us a spirit of fear but of power, love and self-control”.

4. What biblical principles can guide business leaders in engaging with government regulations and policies that impact their operations and industries? Romans 13:1 says, “Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established.”

5. Ephesians 4:3 says, “Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.” How can you engage in political discussions without compromising your witness? What boundaries should be set when expressing political opinions?

Application

6. Read Matthew 6:33. As you grow in your faith at work journey to advance the Kingdom of God through your business, what changes can you make to how you think or what you do, to not let politics or policies change who God wants you to be?

Going Deeper

This section is an extension of the above material and is designed for a deeper study/ devotion on your own. Read the scripture below and take time to journal and put this content into practice to help shape your culture at work.

7. Read 1 Timothy 2:1-2. “I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be made for all people – for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.”

How can you actively pray for political leaders? Why is it essential to pray for those in authority, even when we may disagree with their policies?

8. 1 Corinthians 10:31 says, “So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God”. How will you handle your business situations when your personal political belief conflicts with the interest of your business or stakeholders? Who can you turn to for Christian advice and accountability?
