

Ep:53 Stewarding your Workplace

Discussion Questions

These questions are meant to facilitate discussion and application steps for you.

1. Take Inventory
   Doug says everyone has a “stewardship platform.” Beyond finances, what people, responsibilities, influence, skills, relationships, or resources has God entrusted to you? Which one needs more intentional stewardship right now?
2. Translate belief into practice
   Vermeer moved from the founders’ personal faith to shared principles, defined behaviors, and training throughout the organization. Where is there a gap between what your workplace says it values and what people regularly experience? What practical behavior or system could help close that gap?
3. Lead through experience and trust
   Doug emphasizes that faith becomes real through relationships and experiences, not merely words. How can a leader demonstrate biblical values in a way that is authentic, respectful, and beneficial to people with different beliefs?

Forum Challenge:

“As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God’s varied grace.” 1 Peter 4:10

PRACTICE: INVENTORY • CHOOSE • ACT • INVITE

Before the next Forum meeting, identify one person, responsibility, relationship, or resource God has entrusted to you. Choose one concrete action that will help it flourish, then complete that action. Also identify one person who could benefit from this conversation and personally invite them to the next Forum meeting.

Going Deeper

This section is an extension of the above materials and is designed to give you a deeper study/devotion on your own. The Bible is the best resource that can be used to guide our personal and business lives in order to glorify God. In this segment you will be provided a scripture and then you are to relate in your own words what it means to you and how to apply it to your work.

"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much."
Luke 16:10

Set aside a few quiet minutes this week and ask: What has God placed in my care that I have treated as ordinary, avoided because of fear, or failed to develop?
Write one sentence naming it, one sentence describing what faithful stewardship would look like, and one next step you will take.

What God has placed in my care:

What faithful stewardship would look like:
